From (Name) G. W. Wells, Esquire, M.A., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Collector of South Kanara.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

LAW (GENERAL) Department.

MADRAS.

Sir,

(F) Agreeably to the notification appended to G.C.No. 1165 Law (General) Department dated 22-8-21 a Panchayat Court was established for the village of Kanyan of the Uppinangady Taluk in 1922. The suits filed in this court during the last four years are as shown below:-

1922	-	17
1923	-	8
1924	-	3
1925	-	1

(M) An investigation into the ~~case~~ Cause of the absence of -- work in this court as required by G.O.No.1592, dated 20-6-23 has disclosed that only one suit cognizable by this ----- court has so far been filed in the District Munsif's court Puttur. The Revenue Divisional Officer, Puttur also reports that the court is unpopular in the village owing to factions.

2. The adjoining Village Panchayat Court of Karopady sanctioned in G.O. No.442 Home (Judicial) dated 1-3-21 has on the other hand, been doing pretty good work. It is within two miles from Kanyan and is not separated from it by any unfordable streams. There is also a rent free building ---- available for holding the court in the village.

3. In these circumstances, I recommend that the ------ Kanyan Panchayat Court may be abolished and a court (~~and a court~~ Karopadi) established at Karopadi with jurisdiction over ------ Kanyan village and with effect from 1-11-26. The number of members may be fixed at eight.

4. The village of Kanyan cannot be conveniently ---- included within the jurisdiction of any other Panchayat --- Court.

5. Notifications under sections 9 (1) and 9 (7) of the Village Courts Act are submitted.

Your obedient servant,

For Collector.

U.S. 25-6-26.
